Amendments to BI-ACA-A8
Constitution of the Bloomington Faculty

The Bloomington Faculty Council adopted several amendments to the Constitution of the Bloomington Faculty. The following amendments will need to be ratified by the Bloomington faculty before they are in effect.

- Reword and reorganize Article I: The Faculty to specify categories of faculty being referenced and to clarify voting rights of emeritus faculty;
- Change the definition of non-tenure track faculty to include Professors of Practice;
- Bring the Constitution and the Bylaws into agreement regarding the current practice for selecting members of the Executive Committee;
- Remove the specific timing requirement of the State of the Campus address;
- Remove the specific timing requirement for the distribution of BFC meeting agendas, and refers it to the bylaws;
- Set the minimum standards required for requiring a roll-call vote of the BFC;
- Open the Faculty Board of Review to all instructors for cases involving academic freedom, except student academic appointees who have a separate review board and process;
- Establish election units in four non-tenure-track faculty groups: clinical appointees; lecturer appointees; professor of practice appointees; and research scientist/scholar appointees. Election units will be determined by the Nomination Committee and ratified by the BFC;

- Requires that the number of voting tenure-track faculty and librarian representative be no less than 60% of the total voting membership of the Council;
- Remove the upper cap on the number of tenure-track faculty on the council; and
- Remove the College at-large representative.

-Adopted April 3 & April 17, 2018

Amendments to BI-ACA-A8
Constitution of the Bloomington Faculty

Three additional proposals remain, to be addressed by the Council in the 2018-2019 academic year. These amendments would:

- Reduce the number of at large seats from 10 to 5 and eliminate the seats dedicated to untenured faculty;
- Introduce placeholder language designed to maintain the numbering system in the Constitution; and
- Reduce the number of representatives from the Graduate and Professional Student Government from 4 to 3.
