At the biweekly meeting of the Bloomington Faculty Council, held in President’s Hall on Tuesday, February 20, 2018, the Presiding Officer and Faculty President Alex Tanford in the Chair and Professor Molesworth acting as Secretary, the minutes from the previous meeting (February, 2018) were approved.

Vice Provost Pavalko read a memorial resolution for Bruce Cole.

Parliamentarian Housworth introduced B29-2018: Proposal 1 and B30-2018: Proposal 2, which would amend the definitions of both tenure-track and non-tenure-track faculty in Article I of the Constitution of the Bloomington Faculty. Professor Miller introduced an alternative proposal to amend Article I of the Constitution.

Parliamentarian Housworth introduced B31-2018: Proposal 3, which would amend Article III, Section 3.1, governing the election of officers in the BFC Constitution.

Parliamentarian Housworth introduced B32-2018: Proposal 4, which would amend Article IV, Section 4.2, governing the timing of the annual report on the state of the campus.

Parliamentarian Housworth introduced B33-2018: Proposal 5, which would amend Article IV, Section 4.5, governing the timing of the notice of BFC meetings.

Parliamentarian Housworth introduced B34-2018: Proposal 6, which would amend Article V, Section 5.4, governing the practice of roll-call votes during BFC meetings.

Parliamentarian Housworth introduced B35-2018: Proposal 7, which would amend Article V, Section 5.5, governing the election and representation of faculty to the BFC.

Parliamentarian Housworth introduced B36-2018: Proposal 8, which would amend Article VII, Section 7.1, governing access to Faculty Board of Review.

The meeting concluded at 4:30 P.M.