Update from the Faculty Council Office
A DISCLAIMER

Before you ask...
... yes, I will post these slides after the meeting.

And nearly all this is also available on the Council’s website at bfc.indiana.edu
FIRST, SOME CONTEXT

Who you are & what you do
BFC by the numbers

- Currently 67 Council members
- 15 standing committees, 5 elected committees and 4 task forces
- Approximately 75 additional faculty members between the standing committees
- Responsibility for 74 different academic policies
THE FACULTY COUNCIL OFFICE

Who we are & what we do
Philip Koranteng
Graduate Assistant

• Third-year law student, undergraduate degree in Biomedical Engineering

• Primarily assigned to special projects as needed by the office and Director.
Sarah McCammon
Administrative Assistant

• Degree in Tourism, Conventions, and Event Management from IUPUI

• Primarily assigned to coordinate meeting logistics for Council and committee meetings.
Chad Eagleton
Coordinator

• Nearly 10 years experience at IU, most in the Office of Student Affairs

• Primarily assigned to serve as point-person to key committees including BAC & Nom Com.
Elizabeth Pear

Director

• Nearly 12 years of experience at IU, three years with the Faculty Council Office

• Primarily manages communication between various Council groups. Also wrangles agendas and oversees elections.
BUT WAIT

There’s more
We also…

- Maintain email lists for voting units and committees
- Create verbatim transcripts of meetings
- Manage the Council website
- Support the University Faculty Council
WE’VE MOVED!

Where to find us
Elizabeth
epear@iu.edu
(812) 856-5085

Chad
ceaglto@indiana.edu
(812) 856-5980

Sarah
saramcca@iu.edu
(812) 856-3807

Find us in
Lindley Hall
026 & 026A
What’s new on the website?
The Bloomington Faculty Council (BFC) is an elected, policy-making body responsible for exercising faculty authority on the Bloomington campus. The BFC has taken up highly consequential issues in recent years, including the role of NTT faculty on campus, analytics used in assessing faculty productivity, and many others. Attend a Council meeting and see shared governance in action.

Next Meeting

BFC Meeting

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2020, 2:30 p.m.
- TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2020, 4:30 p.m.
The Bloomington Faculty Council (BFC) is an elected, policy-making body responsible for exercising faculty authority on the Bloomington campus. The BFC has taken up highly consequential issues in recent years, including the role of NTT faculty on campus, analytics used in assessing faculty productivity, and many others. Attend a Council meeting and see shared governance in action.

Next Meeting

BFC Meeting

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2020, 2:30 p.m.
—TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2020, 4:30 p.m.

[View the agenda]
The Bloomington Faculty Council (BFC) is an elected, policy-making body responsible for exercising faculty authority on the Bloomington campus. The BFC has taken up highly consequential issues in recent years, including the role of NTT faculty on campus, analytics used in assessing faculty productivity, and many others. Attend a Council meeting and see shared governance in action.

Next Meeting

BFC Meeting

Tuesday, February 18, 2020, 2:30 p.m.
—Tuesday, February 18, 2020, 4:30 p.m.

View the agenda
A SINCERE

Thank you