BL-ACA-XXX (originally BL-ACA-D16 § VIII)

Scope

All IUB faculty with tenure and academic appointees holding long-term appointments (hereafter “faculty members”).

Policy Statement

- A. In the event that financial exigency is invoked by the university, the UFC will form an ad hoc Financial Exigency Committee.
- B. In said event, the BFC will provide a list of faculty members from which additional members of the UFC Financial Exigency Committee will be selected.
- C. This list of faculty members should be representative of a broad range of faculty, reflecting the diversity of faculty appointments and other skills and expertise as deemed important by CREM.

Policy Summary

This policy responds to University Policy ACA-41 (Faculty Role Regarding University Financial Exigency, Procedure § C. 4.) by defining the means of selecting faculty with tenure and academic appointees holding long-term appointments for possible representation on the university ad hoc Financial Exigency Committee in the event of a declaration of financial exigency by the university (as defined in ACA-41).

Procedures

- A. The BFC Executive committee shall, in consultation with CREM and the full BFC membership, be charged with the formation of the said list.
- B. The proposed list of faculty should be generated using an approach whereby BFC members consult with their constituents.
- C. Proposed faculty need not be current BFC members.
